

Your stage. Your hour.

The project world listening.

THE PLATFORM

DeliverIQ hosts live, one-hour online sessions where practitioners present what's new in the project world — to an audience of project managers, planners and controls professionals across 8+ countries. Live conversation, live Q&A, recorded.

YOUR SESSION

~45 minutes on a topic you know deeply, in any format — talk, case study, walkthrough or conversation — followed by ~15 minutes of live Q&A.

Fully online, from your home or office. No flights, no venues, no leave applications — just you, live, from wherever you are.

We handle everything else: platform, registrations, and promotion of your session to our global audience.

WHAT YOU RECEIVE

25%of your session's earnings

Your expertise carries the session — it earns with you.

The replay is yours

Every session recorded — a professional content asset for your own profile.

Founding status

Your name on the platform from day one, first invitations as the stage grows.

In-person meet

First DeliverIQ meet planned next year — founding speakers are the first names we call.

NEXT STEPS

1. Share your topic idea via the speaker form, or simply reply to our email.
2. We'll agree a date and format together — no cost to you at any point.
3. You show up and share — we take care of the rest.
